

FIVE good reasons why... you should choose a Fair Trader Holiday Park

Are you looking to buy a caravan holiday home?

Or thinking of selling up and trying a different holiday park?

The National Caravan Council's Fair Trader Holiday Park Scheme helps you identify trustworthy parks across the UK that put you, the consumer, first.

At any of the Fair Trader holiday parks:

- 1. You can be sure that the park is committed to high standards of customer care and puts the customer first
- 2. You can be sure that the park has achieved a minimum of three stars under the British Graded Holiday Park Scheme, a national quality standard operated by VisitBritain, that assesses the quality and standards of the facilities on the park
- 3. You can be sure that the park complies with the industry Code of Practice and leisure agreements which are fair, transparent and written in plain English
- 4. You can be sure that the park has been thoroughly assessed by an independent quality assessor and has met the scheme's strict criteria in full
- 5. You can be sure that the park will continue to be assessed at least every two years to remain in the scheme; it may be subjected to unannounced periodic checks, as well

So – before choosing a caravan holiday park, look for the logo – the Fair Trader Holiday Park logo – your assurance of peace of mind. Make sure that while you are away in your caravan, it's just one long holiday!

To check which parks have achieved the award as at February 2006 visit www.thecaravan.net